

This destination offers a plethora of activities and sights to explore. Our visit includes admission to George IV's 19th-century Royal Pavilion, a truly unique and magnificent palace.

Stroll along the Victorian pier that extends from the beach into the sea, and discover the lively town centre with its fantastic shopping, diverse bars and restaurants and frequent street performers and musicians.

You may also want to explore Sea Life Brighton, the world's oldest operating aquarium, for a captivating glimpse of marine life.

Key Highlights:

- The Lanes: A maze of narrow, historic streets filled with jewellery shops, boutiques and cafes.
- Brighton Pier & Beach: Iconic seaside spots with amusement rides and traditional fish and chips.
- British Airways i360: A modern, 162-metre observation tower offering panoramic views of the city and coast.
- Brighton Museum & Art Gallery: Located near the Pavilion, offering collections of fashion, local history and art.
- The Royal Pavilion: Don't miss the exotic architecture, the Banqueting Room, the Music Room, the Great Kitchen and the stunning Regency Gardens.
